Numb. 1625.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 13. to Thursday June 16. 1681.

Vienna, June 5.

THe Emperor at the desire of the Nobility, has resolved to remain at Oedenburg, during the whole Session of the Dyet, and to gratifie the States, his Imperial Majesty has made the Count of Esterhasi Palatine of Hungary, and its hoped all other things will be so ordered, as that the Dyet will have a happy Conclusion. Count Teckeley is not yet come thither, and there is a report that he begins to raise new difficulties, which if it be true, gives great cause to suspect he is Treating with the Turks.

Brussels, June 17. Don Balthasar Fuen Mayor, who came hither two days since from the Hague, is this Morning gone for Mons, to wait upon the Prince of Parma, and to acquaint him with the Resolutions of the States-General of the United-Provinces, upon his Representations concerning the French Pretensions in Luxemburg &c. We have an Account of the death of Don Bernardo de Salinas, who dyed the 8th Instant at Hanover, being on his Journey to Denmark, whither he was going in the quality of Envoye Extraordinary from the King of Spain. The Affairs of Liege continue still extreamly embroiled; the Emperors Commissioner the Sieur Fodocus is endeavouring to Compose them, he has been at Liege and has perswaded the Magistrates to send Deputies to Cologne to make their Submission, which will hardly be accepted, unless they restore things into the same state they were in before these Disorders happened, and resolute to received their Princes Edicts about the 60th Penny; who in the mean time has put a strong Garrison into the Castle of Stockem near Liege, in order to the obliging all Vessels that pass, to pay that Imposition, which they at Liege are so concerned at, that they were once resolved to have marched out with what Force they could make, and to have attacked it as they did Visel, but that it appeared to be an Enterprize of too great difficulty.

Brussels, June 21. The Letters we receive from Luxemburg, dated the 15th Instant, say, that the French Troops were on their march, in order to their Quartering as they did lately, in that Countrey, for that Chiney and other places they pretend to, are not yielded to them. They of Liege do every day more and more exasperate things; for a Party of theirs being lately abroad, surprized, and fell upon forty of the Princes Horse, who were gathering Contributions, of whom they killed several upon the place, and took some Prisoners. The Court continues at Mons, the States of Haynault being at present Assembled there. The Duke of Arschot, who was given over by every body, is now in a condition that gives hopes of his Recovery.

Paris, June 21. The Duke of Luxemburg has not only the Kings leave to return to Court, but to wait the next Quarter, which begins the first of the next Month, as Captain of the Guards du Corps, and on Thursday last he lay at Versailles, which many people were very much surprized at, not having before heard any thing of his being restored to the Kings favour. Monsieur de Lauzun, who has been so long a close prisoner at Pignerol, is removed to the Citadel of Chalons, where he is permitted to see his Friends, and to Write and Receive Letters, which its believed, will be soon followed with an entire Liberty. The Jesuits were yesterday before the Parliament, according to the Order that had been sent them, on occasion of the new Briefs they have received from the Pope concerning Father Mainburg, which they were forbid to obey.

Windsor, June 14. Several Addresses are daily Presented to His Majesty; besides these that follow; there are others from Hertford, Leicester, &c.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Constable of the Castle of Your Majesties Town of Cardiffe in the County of Glamorgan, and the Mayor, Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your said Town, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty.

ALthough Your most excellent Government since Your happy Restauration, hath afforded all peaceable and reasonable Men several Instances, which should even exact their Eternal Gratitude for the Felicity they have and do enjoy under it; yet we think our selves obliged in Duty, as we do in all Humility, to render Your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for Your Majesties late Declaration, and for every particular of it, more especially for the assurances, You are most Graciously pleased therein to renew unto us, of Your Princely care of the Protestant Religion, of the extirpation of Poper, and of Governing by the known Laws of the Land; though neither we, nor any other unprejudiced persons, had any the least just Reason to suspect the contrary, from any one action of Your Majesties Reign, which God long continue: To this we beg leave to add, That we do most humbly implore Your most Sacred Majesty to look upon this Your Town, as the same which Your Royal Father was pleased to Visit, and whose Fidelity he approved of even in his Extremities. And although Your Majesties Royal Prudence (Maugre all the subtile Contrivances of the Popish Party, and the groundless and mean insinuations of the Phanatical Junto) will not (we hope under God) want the same Testimony of our Loyalty; Yet we do hereby in all Humility Declare and Protest, That we will stick by Your most Sacred Majesty, in the Defence of Your just Rights and Prerogatives, the Church of England, as by Law established, and Your lawful Successors in the Right Line, to the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

The most Humble and Hearty Address of Your Majesties truly Loyal, and most Dutiful Subjects, Your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of the several Troops, Regiments, and Companies of Your Majesties Militia, and Train'd-Bands within the County of Dorset: As also of Your Majesties Justices of the Peace of the same County, with other Gentlemen of the said County.

Great SIR,

WE Your Majesties most truly Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, Your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of Your Majesties Militia of Your County of Dorset, and Your Majesties Justices of the Peace of the same County, being deeply sensible (amongst multitudes of other Your good Subjects of this County) of the abundant Happiness which we and all Your Subjects have most comfortably enjoyed, ever since Your Majesties most happy Restauration, under a well-Regulated and Peaceful Government, until of late, the good Order and Quiet, and indeed the very constitution thereof, hath been most wickedly attempted by ill men, not only to be disturbed and shaken, but as much as in them lay, to be overthown and utterly subverted; the more effectually to accomplish which, the unwearied endeavours which they have used, by all the sly ways and means imaginable, to infuse